Office of American Ambassador to the United Nations

From: Ms. Susan Elizabeth Rice

Attention: Sir/Madam

My name is Ms. Susan Elizabeth Rice, American Ambassador to the United Nations. I was mandated to come to Nigeria- West Africa to investigate frauds that are being committed here in Nigeria at intervals. I am presently working with the Nigerian inspector general of police, some FBI and CIA agents to ensure that the perpetrators of these Evil activities are urgently apprehended.

Sincerely, you are a lucky person because I have just discovered that some top Nigerian Government Officials are interested in your approved fund and they are working in collaboration with One Mr. John Gravers from USA to frustrate you and thereafter divert your fund into their personal account.

I have met with President GoodLuck Jonathan of Nigeria who claimed ignorant of the evils perpetuated in his country but promised to compensate you and other 50 fraud victims with 10MUSD each. Right now, as directed by our secretary general Mr. Ban Ki-Moon, We have decided to waive away all your clearance fees and authorize the Government of Nigeria to effect the payment of this approved $10M into your account without any delay. The only fee you will pay to confirm your fund into your account is your International Police Fund Attestation Clearance of $195.

I have a very limited time to stay in Nigeria here so I would like you to urgently respond to this message so that I can advise you on how best to send this fee before confirming your fund in your designated bank account within the next 72 banking hours.

Thanks for your anticipated compliance to this message.

Regards,
